

Havana Stage Station

Mar 3, 2009 | Artifacts | 1 comment

Havana Stage Station, Osage County, Kansas – Built in 1858, the ruins of the station and hotel are found 4 miles west of Burlingame along the Santa Fe Trail.

The ruins of the Havana stage station and hotel

More info: The Santa Fe Trail Research Guide

PREVIOUS

Winter Stand

NEXT

St. Francis of Assisi, Lapeer $

1 Comment

Anita on March 3, 2009 at 8:12 am

Fascinating history and great photography.

About Prairie Dust

This is a photographer's journal of midwestern images, mostly recorded in the eastern half of Kansas. In the mix, you'll find small towns,